FRIDAY, OCT. 18, 1889.

While His Excellency the Governor General is meeting with nothing but the kindest receptions in his present trip throughout Manitoba and the Northwest, we regret exceedingly that the vice-regal party did not include Prince Albert and the Saskatchewan District on their programme. If it is the country their Excellencies wished to see, we have the finest and most fertile lands in this District that can be found in this, or any other country, for that matter. We have a fine town of at least twelve hundred inhabitants, and so far no business failures. We have also a resident M.P. and three M.L.A.'s, a Board of Councillors, and numbers of private citizens who legitimately attach letters after their names, all of whom—together with the entire population of all sects, races and colors—would have been pleased to do honor to the Queen's representative in Canada, had they been given a chance to do so. We look forward, however, to a future opportunity, when the people of Prince Albert will have the same railroad facilities as those to the south, and may be able to show his Excellency the superiority of this place over the one-horse towns on the C. P. R. west of Winnipeg.

The demise of the Hon. Sidney Smith Inspector of Registry offices for Ontario, removes from the arena another old time prominent politician. Mr. Smith represented Northumberland for a number of years in the Canadian Parliament when it was composed of representatives from only the Upper and Lower provinces, and held office as Postmaster General from 1854 to 1857 when he was defeated. Although a life long and consistent conservative he was appointed to the office which he filled so acceptably at the time of his death by the Mowat government. The present Land Commissioner at Winnipeg, Mr. H. H. Smith is a son of the deceased gentleman and is a worthy descendant of his sire. Gradually those of the early Canadians who battled for popular rights in the early history of Canada are being cut down by the hand of death. Sir John Macdonald, the leader and Nestor of the Canadian Commons, is the only member of that House who has held his seat continuously since 1844. Well in deed may he be styled Canada's grand old man and long may he be spared to enjoy his well earned title.

The Northern Pacific and Manitoba railway company have shown no small amount of commendable push and enterprise in extending its system into Manitoba during the past season. Somewhere in the neighborhood of two hundred miles of road has been built and is being operated at this time, thereby enabling the company to get its share of the grain handling business of the country. Indications point to a further extension in the direction of the Saskatchewan, and we trust that at no distant day the whistle of the N. P. locomotive may be heard in land.

We regret that no move was made this fall to place samples of this District's crops before the notice of the eastern farmers who have lately been visiting Manitoba and the Territories. They have come and gone, his Excellency the Governor has done the same, and Prince Albert has had no share in the affairs at all. This is unfortunate for both parties. There are certain persons in our midst whose duty it was to have attended to such matters as these, but for reasons which are not easy to understand, they have neglected doing so.

We are obliged to ask for consideration on the part of our many readers for delay in getting out the last issue of this paper, being left short handed by the illness of the printer the delay was unavoidably caused. At the same time if some of our delinquent subscribers and others would "whack up" a little better than they now do it would considerably help us in our labors and not only that but enable us to materially advance the interests of themselves, ourselves and the district at large by turning out a larger and better newspaper.

November 7th having been proclaimed Thanksgiving Day through out the Dominion, we think the citizens and farmers of this district should celebrate it in some manner. Although far from having a first-class crop, we should remember there are others who have not been favored even as highly as ourselves. We would suggest that the ladies of the different Churches take the matter up and unite to get up a monster harvest home dinner, or something of that nature.

The Earl of Coventry has been mentioned as the probable successor to Lord Stanley, Canada's present popular Governor General. The Earl is at present Master of the Queen's Buck Hounds, in which position no doubt he has been qualifying himself to rule the destinies of the Canadian people.

PROSPECTING.

Mr. H. Porter, of this town, who has been engaged during the past summer in prospecting for minerals throughout the Cumberland and adjacent districts, returned home on Monday last, looking browned and weatherbeaten from exposure consequent on his long journey. In conversation with a TIMES reporter, the gentleman kindly gave the following interesting particulars of his enterprising undertaking. Leaving Prince Albert and the comforts of civilization early in the month of August, he descended the Saskatchewan River to Cumberland and the Pas, carefully examining the country on both sides of the river for precious metals. He then ascended the Carrot River to Pas Mountain, a distance of 80 miles; this stream is described as being of beautifully clear and sweet water, and flowing for many miles through the solid rock, which rises in some places a hundred feet in height. Returned and followed the course of a hitherto almost unknown and unexplored stream called Old Man's river, and which empties into Lake Winnipegosis, still continuing his search for gold. Mr. Porter obtained numerous splendid specimens of different kinds which he brought with him, but describes much of the country through which he passed as being exceedingly rough and very difficult of access; there is however an abundance of very fine timber on nearly all the lands traversed by him, composed chiefly of spruce, pine, and elm. At Cumberland, The Pas, and the different mission stations en route some good crops were seen. On the return journey the Rapid, or as it is perhaps better known, Big Stone river was explored some thirty miles of its course to Moose Lake and here also found several good specimens. We believe it is the intention of Mr. P. to procure suitable machinery with which to prosecute the mining industry to its utmost capacity.

Agricultural Societies in the Northwest Territories.

In order to give effect to the vote of the last Session of Parliament of $10,000 in aid of agricultural societies in the Northwest Territories, the following apportionment and regulations have been decided:

1. An agricultural society having fifty members, each of whom shall have subscribed $1, may receive from the above vote $150 and $2 for every additional subscriber of $1 each, not exceeding eighty-three in all; or for a subscription of $83 34 the Society having membership as above, would be entitled to receive $250, which is the largest amount that will be paid from the vote to any one Society.
2. It is a condition of any payment under the preceding section that the Treasurer of any agricultural society shall be required to furnish not later than the 15th October next, to the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, a statement showing:
 - (a) The name of the Society, and where located;
 - (b) The names of the several officers; and
 - (c) A copy of the list of the members of the Society, with the amounts subscribed and paid, set opposite the name of each.
3. This statement must be certified by a declaration made before a Justice of the Peace, that it is true, and that the subscriptions have been paid.

By order of the Minister of Agriculture.
JOHN LOWE,
Deputy Minister of Agriculture.
Department of Agriculture,

Progress of Inventions since 1845

In the year 1845 the present owners of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN newspaper commenced its publication, and soon after established a bureau for the procuring of patents for inventions at home and in foreign countries. During the year 1845 there were only 502 patents issued from the U. S. patent office, and the total issue from the establishment of the Patent Office, up to the end of that year, numbered only 4,347.

Up to the first of July this year there have been granted 496,413. Showing that since the commencement of the publication of the Scientific American there have been issued from the U. S. Patent Office 492,169 patents, and about one-third more applications have been made than have been granted, showing the ingenuity of our people to be phenomenal, and much greater than ever the enormous number of patents issued indicates. Probably a good many of our readers have had business transacted through the offices of the Scientific American, in New York or Washington, and are familiar with Munn & Co.'s mode of doing business, but those who have not will be interested in knowing something about this, the oldest patent soliciting firm in this country, probably in the world.

Persons visiting the offices of the Scientific American, 301 Broadway, N.Y., for the first time will be surprised, on entering the main office, to find such an extensive and elegantly equipped establishment, with its walnut counters, desks and chairs to correspond, and its enormous sales, and such a large number of draughtsmen, specification writers, and clerks, all busy as bees, reminding one of a large banking or insurance office, with its hundred employees.

In conversation with one of the firm, who had commenced the business of soliciting patents in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, more than forty years ago, I learned that his firm had made application for patents for upward of 100,000 inventors in the United States, and several thousands in different foreign countries, and had filed many cases in the Patent Office in a single month as there were patents issued during the entire first year of their business career. This gentleman had seen the Patent Office grow from a sapling to a sturdy oak, and he modestly hinted that many thought the Scientific American, with its large circulation, had performed no mean share in stimulating inventions and advancing the interests of the Patent Office. But it is not alone the patent soliciting that occupies the attention of the 100 persons employed by Munn & Co., but a large number are engaged on the four publications issued weekly and monthly from their office, 261 Broadway, N.Y., viz: The Scientific American, the Scientific American Supplement, the Export Edition of the Scientific American, and the Architects' and Builders' Edition of the Scientific American. The first two publications are issued every week, and the latter two the first of every month.

RED DEER HILL.

The examination of pupils attending Red Deer Hill Public School No. 17, was held on Tuesday Oct. 8th., when the school closed. The following visitors were present. Mr. and Mrs. Demaris, Mrs. Wm. Hutson, Mrs. Tremain, Mrs. Sullivan, John Stansfield and Mrs. Stansfield, W. Boylan and Robert Giles. Most of the farmers were busy threshing and consequently were unable to attend. A prize for each scholar was presented by the trustees; also a large number of specials by the teacher. The examination was conducted throughout with great credit to pupils and teacher. Miss M. E. Cherry under whose careful training the pupils have progressed rapidly in their studies during the summer.

Mr. Cullen of the N. W. M. P. has been spending a few days at the Hill.

Large flocks of geese are seen everyday but as yet we have not heard of any falling prey to the skill of our local woodrats.

Messrs Hourie and McKay, also Messrs Inkster and Fiddler have been threshing at the Hill for sometime past, but now it is nearly all completed. Wheat averaged about twenty bushels per acre and all of the very best quality. Oats did not return a large yield, owing to drought and smut. From eighteen to twenty bushels per acre was the general return. Barley suffered still worse from the dry weather, and only counts from ten to twelve bushels per acre. Root crops have all been taken up and show a poor return.

Since threshing is finished the farmers are all busy plowing and probably will have all or most of the cultivated land turned over in readiness to sow the seed at as early a date as as possible.

The Hill is rejoicing in its usual number of first prizes, obtained at the Lorne Agricultural Exhibition. Owing to the busy time for farmers very few exhibits were made from here, in comparison with what would have been had they had more time to prepare them.

SIR JOHN SPEAKS OUT IN MEETING.

At a Methodist picnic recently held at Westport, Ont., Sir John Macdonald in a speech to show that the Jesuit act question was not a party issue, said that Alex McKenzie, who for two sessions past had never come to the House after six o'clock was so desirous of preventing a quarrel, which might have most disastrous results and possibly end in bloodshed between the two races, that he an old man and a confirmed invalid, trembling in every joint, left his warm bed and at 2 o'clock in the morning came to register his vote in favor of the constitution which he had helped to formulate.

The parliament of Canada did not pass the Jesuit's Estates act. The parliament of Canada had no more to do with it than the congress of the United States. Be it right or be it wrong, that was no affair of ours. It was within the limits of the constitution, and they had a right to pass it if they chose. What is the meaning of free government? It means government where the people have the right to rule or misrule themselves as they chose.

MERCIER SPEAKS ALSO.

Premier Mercier in his reply to the Protestant committee of public instruction, addressed to Bishop Williams of Quebec, says: "I understand the members of the committee act in the name of the Protestants of this province, in the public trust imposed on them to distribute the $60,000 given them by the Jesuit's Estates act. The intention of the government never was to abolish the fund, and therefore we cannot have the slightest objection to recommend that the law be reconstructed as it was before the Jesuit act if it is found necessary. It was the intention of the government to give $60,000 in capital to the Protestant committee, and the government is ready if the Protestant members of the House agree to restore the law as it was before changed at their request. The government cannot refuse to increase the grant if it be shown that the amount is not a fair proportion. The desire of the government is to render justice on every occasion, and to give full satisfaction to the Protestant minority in this province whenever it is possible.

LOCAL NEWS.

Hon. Lawrence Clarke is recovering from his attack of illness.

Angus Thompson, of the firm of Tait & Thompson, ranchers, etc., arrived today, bringing with him from Ontario a band of splendid young cattle, comprising twenty-five heifers and two bulls. He was fortunate in procuring first-class stock, and came through very quickly, landing his cattle here without losses. The animals are at present pasturing about eight miles south of town, but will be moved to the farms ranch, six miles north of here, when the cold weather sets in. Mr. Thompson also brought along with his stock a thoroughbred bull for T. O. Davis.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken in your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN'S TEETHING. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. MRS. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN'S TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the U. S., and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25c. a bottle.

Buy your Cordwood from F. C. Baker. Buy your Flannels, Blankets and Comforters from F. C. Baker.

R. Stanley, who left Prince Albert sometime last month for the purpose of obtaining work on the Qu'Appelle and Prince Albert railroad, returned home on Thursday. Mr. Stanley evidently thought freighting a more lucrative business than railroading, and accordingly brought through a large load of freight for different local parties from Troy.

A new Top Buggy, Harness and Saddle for sale at F. C. Baker's.

Mr. H. Gisborne, Superintendent of Government Telegraphs, arrived in town to-day. Mr. Gisborne is on his annual tour of the Government telegraph lines in the Territories, and reports the lines under his control as being in good order and working very satisfactorily. The question of street lighting will soon come in for consideration in this town. It is becoming well nigh impossible to navigate on some of the streets south of river street during the dark nights of autumn. We hope to see our Town Council move in this matter, and kindly give us more light. Some temporary lights might very advantageously be erected at some of the street corners, which would serve until such time as the town will have a system of electric or gas light.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Hon. Laurence Clarke, C. F. Hudson's Bay Company. Mr. Clarke had intended starting on his annual tour of inspection of the posts under his charge, when he was prostrated by heart troubles on Monday last. Strong hopes of his recovery are entertained by Dr. Bain, the physician attending. We are certain that we but voice the sentiments of the entire community when we express the hope that Mr. Clarke may be speedily restored to perfect health.

F. C. Baker is selling Mitts, Moccasins and Gloves, of every description, at rock bottom prices.

On Wednesday last a large party of local sportsmen, headed by T. McKay, and consisting of Messrs. Pritchard, T. E. Baker, Gunn, Johnson, Stovel, Tait, Judge McGuire, F. C. Baker, Sergt. Parker and T. N. Campbell, drove out to Tait's ranche, six miles north of town, for the purpose of having a fall hunt. Two days were spent in the neighborhood, plenty of good sport was had, and although there was no record breaking, the party succeeded in bagging plenty of game.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the Saskatchewan Curling and Skating Rink Co., held at the Town Hall on Thursday evening last, it was decided to cover in the rink, and a committee was appointed to take the matter in hand. This is a good move, as it will enable those who cannot spare time in the day to have a couple of hours amusement and recreation after business is over in the long winter evenings. The intention is to light up the rink at night, while those who wish to may also curl in the day time. No doubt this arrangement will increase the club membership to a considerable extent.

By reference to another column of the Times it will be seen that the two well known land surveyors Leacock Reid and T. N. Campbell of this town have formed a partnership to carry on the business of land surveying and are also open for deals in real estate, and purpose transacting a general insurance business. Both gentlemen possess excellent business qualities, and are deservedly popular and will no doubt get their share of the trade.

H. Macdowall, M.P., Patron; Mrs. D. H. Macdowall, Patrons.
